

Presently, I am on the Indiana No-Call list because of many unwelcomed calls from sales companies. If you enable this capability for companies to call me for sales reasons, I will have to spend the extra money each month on a privacy manager to block these calls. When I am home in the evening, I do not want to be bothered by such calls.